
Introduction

Hi, my name is Mark from Durham, NC!

Someone has to be first to get things going, so I guess that's me!

I just enrolled in the Bartending College of Raleigh, starting on July 21. I've always wanted to do this, but was too LA-ZY! I'm all excited about doing part time bartending, in addition to my boring 40-hour job. I love meeting and chatting with people. Maybe I'll make this my fulltime career! I love serving drinks at home and experimenting with my own concoctions.

Anyway...I'm happy to be here!

Sante!
